

Organizational Unit Overview:

The Department of Criminal Justice offers a MS degree, graduate certificate, BS degree, and two minors-criminal justice and forensic science. Current faculty consists of nine tenure-track and four full-time instructors. The Department has the third largest number of majors in the Thomas Harriot College of Arts and Sciences and provides students with a comprehensive educational experience including exemplary academics and numerous extra-curricular opportunities. More information can be found at <http://www.ecu.edu/cs-cas/just/>. East Carolina University is a constituent institution in the University of North Carolina system and Carnegie Doctoral-Research university with nearly 30,000 students. The university is the intellectual, cultural, and health care hub of Eastern North Carolina located between the state capital Raleigh and the Atlantic Ocean Outer Banks region.

Job Duties:

The Department of Criminal Justice invites applications for a non-tenure track, fixed-term position as Teaching Instructor beginning August 18, 2019. This 1.0 FTE appointment will carry a four-course teaching load in the Fall 2019 and Spring 2020 semesters only. Principal focus will be on undergraduate courses in the departmental major/minor programs.

Minimum Qualifications:

Master's degree in Criminal Justice including Criminology or Justice Administration with a minimum of 18 graduate-level semester hours in the criminal justice teaching field is required. All degrees should be from appropriately accredited institutions. We seek a highly motivated and collegial individual with a potential for or demonstrated record of effective teaching at the undergraduate level.

Preferred Qualifications:

All areas of specialization will be considered. Criminal justice teaching experience in higher education is preferred.

Special Instructions to Applicants:

Screening will begin March 25, 2019 and continue until the position is filled. Candidates should submit an online candidate profile, cover letter, and curriculum vitae at www.jobs.ecu.edu. Official transcripts required upon employment.

Additionally, arrange for three original letters of reference be mailed to:

Jenna Smith
East Carolina University
Department of Criminal Justice
246 Rivers Building
Mail Stop 155
Greenville, NC 27858-4353

Questions may be sent to Dr. Mark Jones at jonesg@ecu.edu Chair, Search Committee.

Applicants must complete a candidate profile or staff application (see "Application Types Accepted" below) online via the PeopleAdmin system. In addition, applicants must submit the documents requested in order to be considered for the position.

www.ecu.edu/just/

East Carolina University is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to their race/ethnicity, color, genetic information, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disability, political affiliation, or veteran status.

Individuals requesting accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) should contact the Department for Disability Support Services at (252) 737-1016

(Voice/TTY). Proper documentation of identity and employability is required at time of employment.